

ALICE MARTINSON, MD

*Diplomate, American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery
State Appointed Qualified Medical Examiner*

EDUCATION

1964 BA, George Washington University, Washington, DC
1966 MD, George Washington University, Washington, DC
Graduated with Honors

BOARD CERTIFICATION

1975 American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery
1996 American Board of Forensic Examiners
1997–2001 American Board of Independent Medical Examiners

POSTGRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

1967–1968 Internship, Naval Hospital, San Diego, CA
1968–1972 Residency, Orthopaedic Surgery, Naval Hospital, San Diego, CA
1973–1974 Fellowship, Pediatric Orthopaedics, USC, Los Angeles, CA

MILITARY

1965–1989 Active duty, United States Navy
Captain, Medical Corps, United States Navy, Ret.

MILITARY AWARDS

Legion of Merit (2)
Meritorious Service Medal (3)
Humanitarian Service Medal
National Defense Service Medal

LICENSURE

California #G25165

PRESENT PRACTICE

QME, AME, IME, AOE/COE, CONSULT, SECOND OPINION

EXPERIENCE

1998–Present Orthopaedic & Sports Medicine Clinic of Northwest
Arkansas, Berryville, AR

2004–Present Sierra Valley Medico, Inc.
Fresno, California

Current Hospital staff memberships—
Carroll Regional Medical Center (Active)
North Arkansas Medical Center (Consulting)
Eureka Springs Hospital (Consulting)
Northwest Arkansas Rehabilitation Hospital (Consulting)
Arkansas Surgical Center (Active)

1989–1997 Private solo practice in Berryville, AR
Private solo practice in Carroll County with medical staff memberships at the preceding five facilities

1999–1997 National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, MD
Commanding officer, Clinics Command, Washington, DC and Director, Community Health Services, coordinated primary outpatient care in the Washington, DC area, exceeding 200,000 visits per year; regular part-time orthopaedic care

Alice Martinson, M.D.

EXPERIENCE
(continued)

1988–1989	Office of Navy Surgeon General, Washington, DC Staff to Special Assistant for Medical Corps; staff assistant to Blue Ribbon Panel; Clinical/Operational Medical Task Force
1986–1988	Naval Hospital, Oakland, CA Commanding Officer (Chief Executive Officer), 265-bed multispecialty Navy Training Hospital with 14,000 annual admissions, 300,000 outpatient visits; annual operating budget of $45 million, 250 physician providers, 1,400 staff; 12 residency training programs with ACGME status; successful JCAH survey with three-year accreditation; staffing and equipment plan
1984–1986	Naval Hospital, Pensacola, FL Commanding Officer (Chief Executive Officer), 130-bed family practice residence training Naval Hospital; 7,100 admissions, 350,000 annual outpatient visits; budget of $21 million, 75 physician providers, and 1,000 staff; facilitated expansion of outpatient visits; successful JCAH survey with three-year accreditation; occupational health/industrial hygiene support for air re-work facility, aviation training, mobile construction battalions, and Naval Air Stations; regular part-time orthopaedic practice
1982–1984	Naval Hospital, Philadelphia, PA Commanding Officer (Chief Executive Officer) 90-bed general Naval Hospital; 3,500 admissions, 250,000 outpatient visits; annual operating budget of $12 million, 35 physician providers, 600 staff; expanded inpatient and outpatients capabilities; provided occupational health/industrial hygiene services to naval shipyard, air station, ordnance depot, and two large warehousing operations; regular part-time orthopaedic practice
1981–1982	Naval Hospital, Great Lakes, IL Director of Clinical Services (Assistant Chief Executive Officer); 160-bed general Naval Hospital; 7,000 admissions, 550,000 outpatient visits annually, 50 physician providers, 1,100 staff; successful JCAH survey with two-year accreditation; designed and implemented prototype hospital-wide Quality Assurance Program for Department of Defense and Navy Programs; regular part-time orthopaedic practice
1980–2000	National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, MD Assistant Chief, Department of Orthopaedics, residency training program director
01/78–12/79	Armed Force Institute of Pathology, Washington, DC Clinical consultant to Bone and Joint Branch Coordinator and instructor for annual six-week Musculoskeletal Pathology Course
04/74–12/77	Naval Hospital, Long Beach, CA Chief, Orthopaedic Department, full-time practice of general and pediatric orthopaedics; responsible for 6 physicians and 14 staff
01/74–12/77	Hemophilia Treatment Center, Los Angeles, CA Orthopaedic Center; pioneered multiple surgical procedures in rehabilitation of patients with chronic hemophilia arthritis; numerous consultant visits to Japan, Israel, Germany, Italy, Sweden, and within the United States

LOCATIONS

BAKERSFIELD

2020 17th Street, Suite 2016, Bakersfield, CA 93301

(661) 322-4101

FRESNO

7033 N Fresno Street, Suite 201, Fresno, CA 93720

(559) 435-5581

MERCED

3351 'M' Street, Suite 230, Merced, CA 95348

(209) 383-4485

SAN LUIS OBISPO

620 California Blvd #Q, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

(805) 543-5581

VISALIA

300 E Mineral King, Suite 110, Visalia, CA 93291

(559) 734-3931